Dear Mr Gordon

Further to your recent advertisement for the position of Graduate Financial Advisor on www.dayjob.com, I would like to be considered for this vacancy and enclose my CV for your review.

I recently graduated with honours in Accounting & Finance from the University of Liverpool. Whilst studying there I also worked part time as an Office Assistant with a mortgage company, where I gained valuable knowledge providing tailored financial advice, products and services to clients in the medical, dental, legal and teaching professions. This combination of working whilst studying has given me both the theoretical and practical knowledge needed to hit the ground running in any future position I take up. I now have a wide breadth of experience of the type that gives potential employers the flexibility to place me in a broad range of demanding situations, with the confidence that I will undertake my duties professionally and effectively.

As the position with you is predominantly in financial advising, I am confident that I can make a substantial contribution to your company. I work well under pressure, am reliable and carry out tasks in a thorough, precise manner. Some of the key strengths I can offer you include:

- Excellent communication skills both over the phone & face to face.
- Identifying and implementing strategies to meet objectives.
- An understanding of the regulatory, financial & risk contexts in which financial advisors operate.
- Drive and determination to exceed set targets.

While it is early in my financial career, you will find that I exhibit a powerful combination of proven ability, expertise, solid communication skills, and extensive hands on experience. I would also like to state that I have researched your company and was greatly impressed by its reputation not only amongst your competitors but also with the general public.

I look forward to the opportunity to meet with you to learn more about your firm, its plans and goals, and how I might contribute to its continued success.

Yours sincerely

Mark Tomlinson

Dear Sir,

SUB: COVER LETTER FOR THE POST OF A LECTURER

With reference to your advertisement in Fortune Newspaper, I came to know that your college requires a Lecturer. I am interested for this position, and would be glad to apply for the same.

I hold a PhD in Physics from the University of Belmont, and have scored distinction in all the exams throughout my career. I have 5 years of experience in Belmont College as a lecturer in Physics. I have a unique style of teaching which includes the students in my subject and creates interest. Students of the Belmont have done exceptionally well in Physics under my guidance. I have also attended many seminars and workshops in my career.

I possess all the qualities that you have mentioned in the job advertisement. I am also attaching my resume for your further reference. It would be highly appreciable if you could meet me in person, so that we could discuss about the knowledge and skills. You can call me on my given contact number, or get back to me with an email on my email id.

Yours sincerely,

Jennifer Campbell
